

SA YOUTH PRESENTATION

CLIENT NAME

Xx Month 2021

Understanding the challenges young people face

Meet Hershel

No work experience

No qualifications beyond matric

No time and money to look for work

The problem

Millions of young women and men with no line of sight to opportunities

Our first 10 years

Giving thousands of young people a
'leg up' to see and access

The next 10 years

Removing systemic barriers for all creates more opportunities

What is SA Youth?

LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

Common challenges organisations face when hiring entry-level staff

Finding work-seekers who live close to the place of work

High levels of admin required to manage paper-based applications & track the recruitment process

Long turn-around times

Identifying work-seekers with a level of spoken English that matches the job

Entry level work seekers have limited information to assist employers with their selection

Recruitment fees

Engaged work-seekers who are actively looking for work and applying for your opportunities

Access a large pool of work-seekers to whom you would not traditionally be exposed to

National coverage means you can centrally hire local young people anywhere in the country for multiple branches/offices

Ability to source young people in order to benefit from the Employment Tax Incentive (ETI)

Solving challenges:

Difficulty finding the right fit for the job

Long turn-around times

Finding work-seekers who live close to the place of work

“I couldn’t afford to go to town every day to look for work so I made sure my CV was ready, when the opportunity came for me to go buy groceries in town, I would drop my CV at all the major retail stores”

- Tired Makofane, Burgersfort

“I don’t wait for handouts. I put myself out there and have applied to many companies, but in the meantime, I am selling ice-cream; it gives me money for bread while I work on getting customers for my haircare services.”

- Mokgadi Malele, Vlakfontein

Reduce admin for your HR department. No more manual sifting through 100s of CVs

Set unique permissions to allow multiple users from your organisation to use the platform

Easy national hiring with access to engaged work-seekers near your location

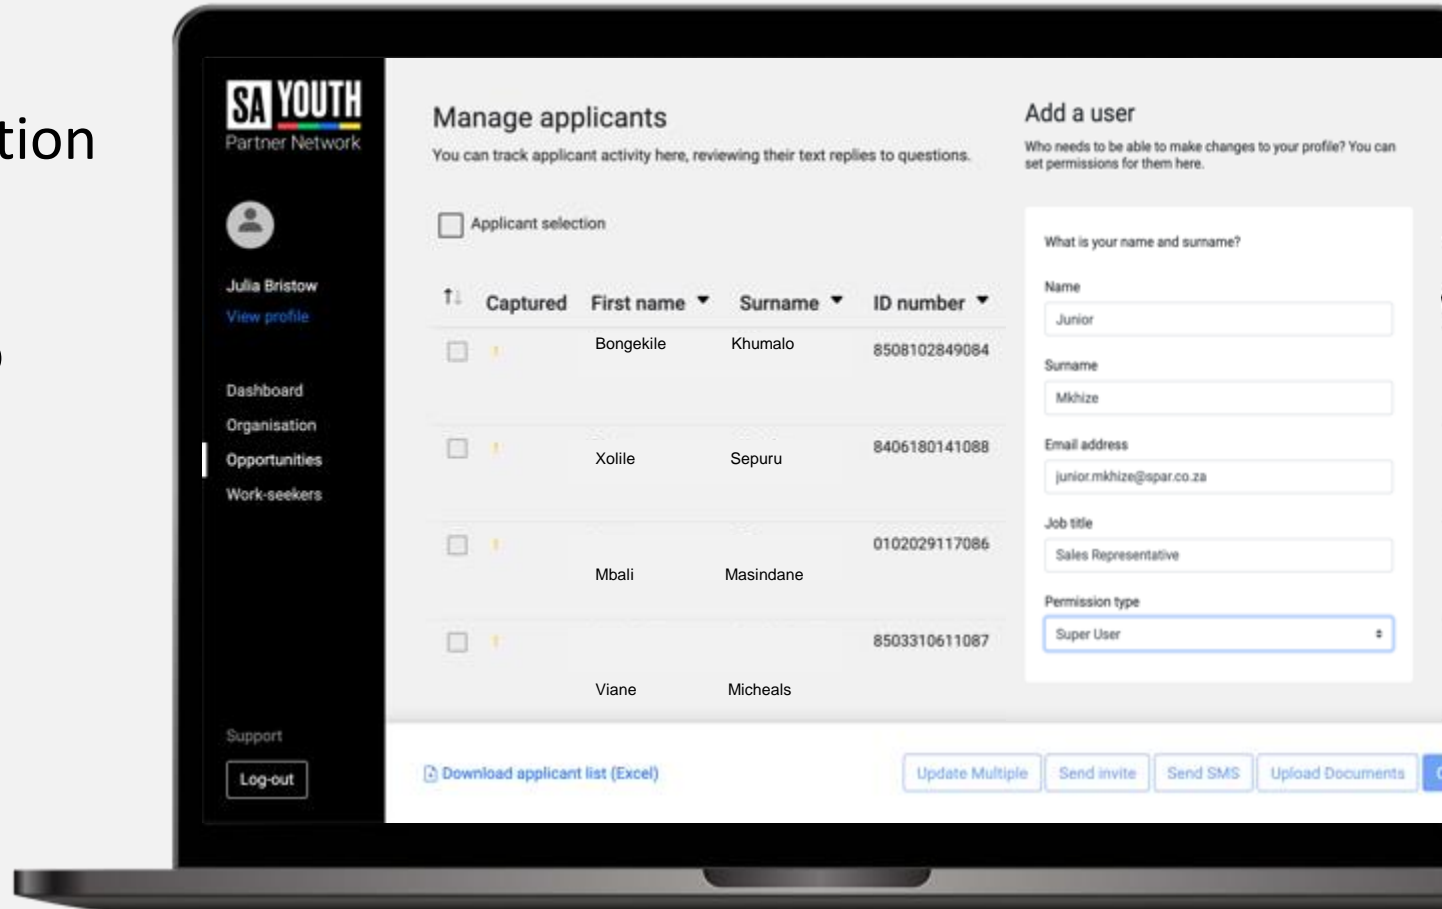

Solving challenges:

High levels of admin required to manage paper-based applications and track the recruitment process

Long turn-around times

We use data points to recommend your job to the right work-seekers. Considering your requirements, skills needed and location.
